National handball in Modřanská rokle: Handball club (TJ Spartak Modřany) rent a meadow at the end of Modřanská rokle in 1947 which was turned into a court with the help of the players and the club fans. They built cabins and a wooden clubhouse.

There started an era of the Czech master handball in Modřany. But the validity of the court rent contract ended in 1957 and the club didn't extend it. They built a new court together with volleyball players on the Summer training ground at the Modřany Sokol house. They had to free up this place in 1984 for a construction of the T.G. Masaryk Primary School pavilion and a new canteen. They returned to Modřanská rokle in 1986. Photo: 1st qualifying tournament in the 1950s, perhaps October 25, 1953. (by the natural trail)
